The Federal Communications Commission will implement new rules at the end of 2007 for phone and 2017 for Internet, to protect the privacy of information contained in your phone and/or Internet accounts with Algona Municipal Utilities. The new rules allow AMU to discuss account information only with person(s) listed on your AMU Communications account. AMU must be able to authenticate that person and will do that by asking a specific question to which you have previously provided an answer. Although AMU has always treated your account information with confidentiality, please help us in our effort to further ensure that we protect this information by completing the following:

Customer proprietary information (customer PI) means any of the following that a carrier acquires in connection with its provision of telecommunications service:

1. Individually identifiable customer proprietary network information (CPNI)
 - Voice CPNI:
 - Information that relates to the quantity, technical configuration, type, destination, location and amount of use by a customer. Information contained in the bills pertaining to telephone exchange service or telephone toll service, e.g., phone numbers; time, date and duration of calls; calling patterns; frequently called states; amount customer spends.
 - Broadband Internet Access Service (BIAS) CPNI:
 - Broadband Service Plans
 - Geo-location (physical location of a customer or device) Address
 - Media Access Control (MAC) Addresses and Other Device Identifiers (specific information about the devices on the network)
